AMEND Senate Bill No. 993

House Bill No. 888*

by deleting the second sentence of the amendatory language of Section 1 and by substituting instead the following language:

Prior to entering into a contract with a buyer on or after the effective date of this act, the seller shall, where such information is known to the seller, also disclose in the same manner whether any single family residence located on the property has been moved from an existing foundation to another foundation.
